Session Cookies:

Temporary cookies that identify and track users within our websites, applications or services, which are deleted when you close your browser, or leave your session.

Persistent Cookies:

Cookies that enable our website, applications or services to “remember” who you are and your preferences within our websites, applications or services and which will stay on your computer or device after you close your browser or leave your session in the application or service.

Necessary Cookies:

Cookies which are required for our websites, applications or services to function properly. Without these essential cookies, services you have specifically asked for cannot be provided (e.g: cookies that allow you to access secure areas of our website).

Analytics Cookies:

Cookies that collect information about how you use our websites, applications and services, for instance which functionality you use most often, and if you get error messages from areas of the websites, applications or services.

Please Note: These cookies do not collect information that identifies you, all information collected by these cookies is aggregated and therefore anonymous (e.g: to improve how our website, applications & services work).

Functionality Cookies:

Cookies which allow our websites, applications and services to remember choices you make such as your username, language or the region you are in, and provide enhanced, more personal features.

They can also be used to remember changes you have made to text size, fonts and other parts of web pages that you can customise and to provide services you have asked for (e.g: The information these cookies collect may be anonymised to stop any tracking of your browsing activity on other websites).

Marketing Cookies:

The Curtis Banks Group does not currently use targeting or advertising cookies through our websites. These cookies could be used to deliver adverts relevant to you and your interests. They could also be used to limit the number of times you see advertisements as well as help measure the effectiveness of the advertising campaign, usually placed by advertising networks with the website operators' permission.

Web Beacons & Parameter Tracking:

We may use cookies and similar software known as web beacons to count users who have visited our website after clicking through from one of our advertisements on another website or in emails and to collect details of any products or services purchased. These web beacons collect limited information which does not identify particular individuals. It is not possible to refuse the use of web beacons. However, because they are used in conjunction with cookies, you can effectively disable them by setting your browser to restrict or block cookies.

Google Analytics Cookies:

Google Analytics Cookies are used to collect information about how you use our website, view information, products, investments or on-line tools, in order to compile reports to help us improve our websites. Cookies collect information in an anonymous form, including the number of visitors to the site, the name of your Internet Service Provider (ISP), the website you last visited, the pages you request/visit, the date and time of those requests and the number of visits you made to the website, during normal website usage. For more information on Google Analytics visit <http://tools.google.com/dlpage/gaoptout>

IP Address & Traffic Data:

We keep a record of traffic data which is logged automatically by our servers, such as your device information, the website that you visited before ours and the website you visit after leaving our site. We also collect some site, application and service statistics such as access rates, page hits and page views (e.g: We are not able to identify any individuals from traffic data or site statistics).

Browser Local Storage:

Curtis Banks Group uses browser local storage within our Portal Application to store data which is utilised to enhance your experience and provide quicker responses.

3. How to Disable Cookies:

You can disable cookies on the website using the options provided by the website in the bottom right hand corner.

You may also be able to configure your browser or our website, application or service to restrict cookies or block all cookies if you wish, if you disable cookies you may find this affects your ability to use certain parts of our website, applications or services.

You can find more information about cookies and instructions on how to adjust your browser settings to accept, delete or reject cookies at www.youronlinechoices.com and www.allaboutcookies.org

4. Changes to our Cookie Notice

Information Notice

We may change, modify or adjust this Cookie Notice from time to time; however we will not reduce your rights under this Cookie Notice.

Any changes we may make to our Cookie Notice in the future will be found on our website. Copies are also available from us by post. Please contact us if you require a copy.
