What types of property or transactions do we exclude?

We will always review the individual properties looking to be purchased and assess them on their own merits. There are a number of general property types that we do not include, due to legislation or to make sure the investment in the SIPP remains secure.

Excluded properties or transactions include:

- > Overseas property. Property must be located in England, Wales, Scotland or Northern Ireland.
- > Joint title purchases where the beneficial interest retained outside of the SIPP is of nominal value.
- > Property that benefits from an aggregated income such as hotel rooms and storage pods.
- > Residential property including holiday apartments, beach huts, and caravans.
- > Gardens or parts of property that form or are used in conjunction with residential property.
- > Types of property where we are advised that there is no re-sale market.
- > Property with environmental concerns, including petrol stations and recycling centres.
- > Commercial freeholds where there is a residential leasehold under the freehold.
- > Any property our insurers will not cover.
